Vienna, May 15. The 13th Inſtant being appointed for Prince Eugene of Savoy's giving publick Audience to Ibrahim Aga, his Highneſs's Coach fetched that Envoy from his Lodgings, a Chiaia on Horſeback preceded the Coach, carrying in his Hands the Credential Letter; and the Aga's Retinue attended about the Coach, ſome on Horſeback others on Foot: The March was begun by a Company of Soldiers of our Garriſon, and cloſed by another. The Aga arriving at the Prince's Houſe, was received at the top of the Stairs by two Commiſſaries who complimented him on the part of his Highneſs in the German Language, and he anſwer'd them in Turkiſh, an Interpreter aſſiſting. Then the Chiaia paſſed forwards, carrying the Credential Letter, two other Turks walking by him; and the Aga ſupported by two of his Retinue and preceded by the Interpreter, was conducted by the Imperial Commiſſaries to the Hall of Audience. the Rooms through which he paſſed being filled with General Officers and other Perſons of Diſtinction all in magnificent Habits. Prince Eugene, who was ſitting in an Elbow Chair under a Canopy of Crimſon-Velvet, roſe up at the Aga's Approach and ſtood uncovered while he made his Bows, and then ſate down with his Hat on. The Aga took the Letter from the Chiaia, kiſſed it, laid it to his Forehead, and then with a low Bow preſented it to his Highneſs, who gave it to M. d' Ertel Counſellor of War. The Aga at the Prince's Invitation ſat down on a Chair, and after a ſhort Conference which they held together by help of the Interpreter, he withdrew, and was reconducted to his Lodgings in the ſame manner. Stores of Artillery and Ammunition, and Horſes for remounting the Cavalry, continue to be ſent to Hungary, and a number of Maſons are ſent to work on the Repair of the fortified Places.

Ratisbon, May 20 Count Metternich the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter is on his Departure for Vienna, having received by the laſt Poſt from Berlin his full Powers and Inſtructions for the Affairs which he is charged with to the Imperial Court, where he is to receive the Inveſtiture of the Electorate of Brandenbourg. Letters from Buda of the 10th of this Month give an Account, That a conſiderable Number of heavy Pieces of Cannon was arrived there by Water, but without Carriages, on which Men were ſet to work with all Diligence; and a Detachment of 2000 Men from ſeveral Regiments was ſoon expected, to be employed on the Repair of the Fortifications of that Place. 'Twas adviſed the 2d Inſtant from Peterwaradin, that the Sultan and Grand Vizier were on their March to Adrianople, and that the Aga of the Janiſaries was advanced before with a Body of Troops towards the Morea. They propoſe to open the Campaign by the Siege of Napoli di Romania, and their Fleet is to advance thither to favour the Attempt. The Turks on the Frontiers of Hungary behaved themſelves very Peaceably and Friendly, and no new Troops were yet come into the Neighbourhood of Belgrade. 'Tis adviſed from Vienna, that the Lord Cobham having had Audience of Leave of their Imperial Majeſties on the 12th Inſtant, left that Court the 16th, and is on his Return to England by the way of Strasbourg and Paris.

Hague, May 28. On the 24th Inſtant a Letter was ſent by Direction of the States-General to Rear-Admiral de Veth, with Orders to put to Sea for the Baltick, and Inſtructions for his Conduct there. He had with him at that time in the Texel nine Men of War, being the Quota furniſhed by Amſterdam and by North Holland: Two other Men of War, furniſhed by the Chamber of Admiralty of the Maeſe, and one from Zealand, have ſince ſailed with the Merchant Ships bound from thoſe Parts to the Baltick, to join the others in the Texel: But we have no Advice yet of this Fleets being all joined and ſailed.
